SUBJECT: Bryston Mini A Speakers – Upcoming Review

December 2014

Hi James,

Andre Marc here. I just received a pair of Bryston Mini A speakers in for review.

BRYSTON MINI A

Let me just say that after just 24 hours I am absolutely impressed beyond any expectations I could have had. The Mini A's have the potential to offer the highest price to performance ratio I have encountered in my time in the industry.

I am actually getting very decent bass performance in my room now. I have them in a system that includes a your BDA-1 DAC. I think you guys make the best digital and on the market, and great electronics, but I won't lie, I was a bit skeptical about the speakers!.

I seriously think you may have set a new benchmark in this price range. I have generally gravitated towards classic British designs for monitors, but quite frankly, these Bryston Mini A speakers are game changers, and they are not even settled in yet.

Stay tuned!
