Last, but certainly not the least, I was treated to some truly potent two-channel music in the Bryston salon, as James Tanner revved up his Middle T floor-standers.

Powered by Bryston 28B SST2 mono-blocs.

If Robbie Robertson's 'Somewhere Down The Crazy River' with its heart stopping drumbeats is any example of what to expect, then be prepared for something special with the bryston speakers that does not require a second mortgage to own.
